

Precautionary measures taken to contain the spread of the Coronavirus (COVID19-)

Not allowed

-  Gatherings outside houses and in public areas are to be limited to 5 individuals only.
-  Gatherings in public parks and public beaches are prohibited.
-  All retail and industrial enterprises will close temporarily, from 26 March 2020 until 10 April 2020

* Excluded businesses

-  Hypermarkets, supermarkets, cold stores, grocery stores, butcher shops and fish shops.
-  Bakeries.
-  Natural gas fueling stations and liquid fueling stations.
-  Hospitals, medical centres, pharmacies and optical centres.
-  Banks and currency exchange bureaus.
-  Manufacturers.
-  Corporate administration offices of companies and organizations that conduct activities without direct engagement with customers.
-  Businesses that import, export and distribute goods.
-  Automotive garages and repair shops.
-  Businesses operating in the construction and maintenance industry.

Allowed

-  Leaving the house for work, buying medication or necessities, or visiting a hospital.
-  Individuals exercising outdoors in public spaces are obliged to do so alone or in a pair of two, keeping a distance between one another. Individuals are also advised to not bring along any children or minors.
-  During family social gatherings, such as weddings and funerals, individuals are obliged to follow all preventative measures outlined. Funeral ceremonies are to be limited to close family members only.
-  During queuing in supermarkets, service areas, or work pick up and drop off points, individuals are obliged to follow social distancing measures, and keep a distance of not less than a meter between one another.
-  Retail and industrial enterprises are allowed to engage in the sale of goods and services and their delivery by electronic means and social media platforms.
-  Restaurants and food and beverage outlets are also permitted to operate through take away services and home delivery services.

All retail and industrial enterprises will be open again from 10 April to 23 April

Laws will be enforced on any violators of the decisions