

Starting from Thursday, 13 January 2022

The National Medical Taskforce announce an update to precautionary quarantine protocols for active COVID-19 cases

The precautionary quarantine period

Green Shield holders

Quarantine for seven days from the date of infection

Non-Green Shield holders

Quarantine for ten days
from the date of infection

Precautionary quarantine protocols for contacts of active COVID-19 cases

All precautionary health measures currently in force will continue to be followed

	Green Shield holders	Non-Green Shield holders
 Contacts of active COVID-19 cases
 	Not required to quarantine	Quarantine for seven days
 	A PCR test on day 7 from exposure is not mandatory Testing is mandatory if symptoms arise

Starting from Thursday, 13 January 2022

Precautionary quarantine protocols for travellers entering the Kingdom of Bahrain through all ports of arrival

Green Shield holders

Non-Green Shield holders

Travellers entering the Kingdom of Bahrain through all ports of arrival

Not required to quarantine

Quarantine on arrival for a period of seven days

Undergo a PCR test upon arrival only